NEW DAVID DELBRIDGE SINGLE, “ABIogenesis,” TO BE RELEASED FEBRUARY 25TH

Produced in High-Resolution Surround Sound, The Dark Ambient Instrumental Promises Another Immersive Dolby Atmos Experience.

INCLINE VILLAGE, Nev., Jan. 26, 2022 – Electronic rock musician, David Delbridge, announces the imminent release of his second single, “Abiogenesis” – in stores on Friday, February 25th. Promptly following his debut single, “Heat Death,” the surround track assures a return to the artist’s eerie world, but this time, with a tonal plot twist.

“If ‘Heat Death’ was the end, ‘Abiogenesis’ is the rebirth,” explains Delbridge. “Both tracks are decidedly dark, but here, the melody offers a trace of hope amidst the electronic gloom and doom.”

The track was composed and produced single-handedly by Delbridge and exhibits the artist’s competence on a variety of musical instruments: electric guitars, electric bass, acoustic and electric pianos, and a variety of “treasured” analog synthesizers.
